I got to sing, I got to dance
I got to be a part of a great romance
Still forbidden, still outrageous
Only a few around us knew
But no one said a word, it was contagious

Looked out the window
We watched the cars fly by
I look at you and I start to cry
What you did was, you saved my life
I won't forget it

You said, "Even if I left my girlfriend
Packed up my stuff, loaded up my car
Drove down to your house with good intentions
Came through your door, for what it's worth"

I got to love, I rode the rails
You came with me because you cared
I was broke and I was scared
You held my hand, took away my fear
We knew it couldn't last and that was hard

We looked out the windows
We watched the cars fly by
I look at you and I start to cry
What you did was, you saved my life
I won't forget it

You said, "Even if I left my girlfriend
Packed up my stuff, loaded up my car
Drove down to your house with good intentions
And came through your door, for what it's worth"

I got to sing, I got to dance
I got to be a part of a great romance
Still forbidden, still outrageous
Only a few around us knew
But no one said a word, it was contagious

We looked out the windows
We watched the cars fly by

I look at you and I start to cry
What you did was, well, you saved my life
I won't forget it

You said, "Even if I left my girlfriend
Packed up my stuff, loaded up my car
Drove down to your house with good intentions
Came through your door, oh

You said, "Even if I left my girlfriend
Packed up my stuff, loaded up my car
Drove down to your house with good intentions
Came through your door, for what it's worth"

For what it's worth
For what it's worth
