Outside my door the rain is falling
A cold, wild wind will come
Well, there's someone for me somewhere
But I still miss that one

No, I never got over those blue eyes
I see them everywhere
And I miss those arms that held me
Baby, when all the love was there

Well, I wonder if he's sorry
For ending what we had begun
Well, there's someone, someone for me somewhere
Baby, well, I still miss someone

And I never got over those blue eyes
I see them everywhere
And I miss those arms that held me
(I miss those arms)
Ooh baby, when all the love was there

And I never got over those blue eyes
(Those blue eyes)
I see them everywhere
And I miss those arms that held me
(I miss those arms)
Baby, when all the love was there

Baby, when all the love was there
Baby, when all the love was there
