Mmm

On the beach where young lovers meet

You can see them there as they sit and build

Castles in the sand

Heavenly she's so heavenly

When she smiles at you

And she helps you build castles in the sand

The time comes when you stop pretending

For all dreams must come to an ending

Remember what happens to castles of sand

The sea will wash them away

Oh

And the beach where they used to meet

By the sand and sea waves have washed away

Castles in the sand

Castles in the sand

Where did they go

Castles in the sand

Tell me, where did they go

Castles in the sand

I wanna know where did they go
