I was a lonely no one
Living in a vacuum as life's debris
Victimized as one whose self deprivation
Had made for my outer insecurity

I was, "He ain't nothin'"
Living in the slums of love's misery
Starving from the lack of sweet affection
'Til you came to rescue me

My eyes don't cry no more
My heart don't ache no more
Since you walked through my door
I don't have to no longer be blue

My eyes don't cry no more
My heart don't ache no more
Now that love's touched my soul
All my lonely nights alone are through

I was a Mr. Lonely
Seeing only darkness in the bright of day
Blind even though my eyes were wide open
But then your love sunshined my way

My eyes don't cry no more
My heart don't ache no more
Since you walked through my door
I don't have to no longer be blue

My eyes don't cry no more
My heart don't ache no more
Now that love's touched my soul
All my lonely nights alone are through

I don't cry, baby, baby, I don't cry
I don't cry, baby, baby, I don't cry
I don't cry, baby, baby, I don't cry
I don't cry, baby, baby, I don't cry

I don't cry, I don't cry no more
I don't cry, I don't cry no more

I don't cry, I don't cry no more
I don't cry, I don't cry no more

I don't cry, I don't cry no more
I don't cry, I don't cry no more
I don't cry, I don't cry no more
I don't cry, I don't cry no more

My life was without reason
Sinking in a hell that had no space or time
Falling to the burning pit of pain and sorrow
Until you saved this life of mine

My eyes don't cry no more
My heart don't ache no more
Since you walked through my door
I don't have to no longer be blue

My eyes don't cry no more
My heart don't ache no more
Now that love's touched my soul
All my lonely nights alone are through

I don't cry, baby baby I don't cry
I don't cry, baby baby I don't cry
I don't cry, baby baby I don't cry
I don't cry, baby baby I don't cry

My eyes don't cry no more
My heart don't ache no more
My nights are not lonely no more
My tears don't flow no more
My eyes don't cry, my eyes don't cry
My eyes don't cry no more
