Sister Mother, I need your protection
Sing a prayer for my soul's insurrection
I know it's none of your business
But I'm in need of a hundred thousand dollar witness

Drop my wallet in the wishing well
But that's the same old story they all tell
I know it's none of your business
But I'm in need of a hundred thousand dollar witness

And I can understand your fear of saving souls
Still strong enough to fight
But I remember you telling me that
No one should be alone on a night with no end
(Sister Mother€!)

And so it's clear why I'm here my friend
(Sister Mother€!)

To read you every single song you sent me
(Sister Mother€!)

And give you back that stupid book you lent me
(Sister Mother€!)

And when excuses like these don't fit me
(Sister Mother€!)

I tell them all about the power you give me
(Sister Mother€!)

Certain persons, some I know quite well
Bought the ticket, now they ride first class to hell
I know it's none of your business
But I'm in need of a hundred thousand dollar witness

Holy daughter, sprinkled over me
LaGuardian angel, lack of luxury
I know it's none of your business
But I'm in need of a hundred thousand dollar witness

And I can understand your fear of saving souls
Still strong enough to fight
But I remember you telling me that
No one should be alone on a night with no end
(Sister Mother€!)

Got to be clear why I'm here my friend
(Sister Motherâ€¦)
I need a friendly lawyer to defend me
(Sister Motherâ€¦)
Someone who's been to the places you send me
(Sister Motherâ€¦)
And no amount of pressure ever could bend me
(Sister Motherâ€¦)
And so I'll plant a flower to out live me
(Sister Motherâ€¦)
See It grows to show all the power you give me
(If you can lean, lean on me)
(Sister Motherâ€¦)
It grows to show all the power you give me
(If you can lean, lean on me)
(Sister Motherâ€¦)
It grows to show all the power you give me
(If you can lean, lean on me)

Sister Mother, I need your protectionâ€¦
