Take a look around you all is dead
A good look around makes me see red
What have they done to us?
Taken all our fun from us
We might as well just stay all day in bed

Of course we're right
You know we're right
It's worse than Monday
Yes of course we're right
You know we're right
Change from Monday
Yes of course we're right
And you know we're right
There's nothing to do on bloody Sunday

The truth of it all it's only face
A sadness to keep you in your place
Don't do this take no drink
Don't do that don't even think
But seven days a week
Let's pick over the traces

Of course we're right
You know we're right
It's worse than Monday
Yes of course we're right
You know we're right
Change on Monday
Yes of course we're right
And you know we're right
There's nothing to do on bloody Sunday

They say a day of rest
Ought to be Sunday best
But they do what they can
To make it Sunday worst
The week is weak enough
Even without a non-day first

Bloody Sunday
