Walk the streets at midnight
As the rain pours down and freezes on the ground
Lean against a street light
Try to work out where it all went wrong

I can see you in my mind's eye
I have no choice
I can hear you in the wild wind
I hear your voice, your voice

Can't believe it's over
I can't believe that I walked out the door
A misplaced sense of honor
Led me to believe I knew the score

I can see you in reflections
You're there all the time
And if only you would let me
I'd change my mind

In the dead of night
(I would be there for you)
I'd be on your side
(My help would see you through)
Trust in me, don't cry
(There now, you'll be all right)
In the dead of night

It happened all so quickly
One day we were there and now we are gone
I wish that you'd forgive me
Now I know that I'm the one who's wrong

Can't believe I'm so stupid
I would not see
That you never gave up trying
Or loving me

In the dead of night
(I would be there for you)
I'd be on your side
(My help would see you through)

Trust in me, don't cry
(There now, you'll be all right)
In the dead of night

And I couldn't blame you now
If you didn't want me back
No, I couldn't blame you now

Walk the streets at midnight
As the rain pours down and mixes with my tears
And I know, I've no right
To try to see you after all these years

But you're always with me
I have no choice
And I know, I'll remember
And I'll hear your voice

In the dead of night
(I would be there for you)
I'd be on your side
(My help would see you through)
Trust in me, don't cry
(There now, you'll be all right)
In the dead of night
