Time after time
The world is pressing down on your shoulders
I can know how you feel
Like you're the only one taking orders

It's hard to come to terms
With what seems so unfair
But somewhere in your life
You've got someone who cares

And I'll speak those honeyed words
And I'll speak those honeyed words
'Cos I know them all

Don't get worn down
It's much too easy to be defeated
Stand strong and proud
(Stand)
And let them know that you won't be beaten

And if you start to waver
Or you start to shake
Just stand up and be counted
Don't begin to break

'Cos I'll speak those honeyed words
And I'll speak those honeyed words
'Cos I know them all

So if you think you'll weaken
Resolution overthrown
Remember all we've said
And you are not alone

And I'll speak those honeyed words
'Cos I'll speak those honeyed words

And I'll speak those honeyed words
'Cos I'll speak those honeyed words
'Cos I know them all
