"The Task"

It is ongoing.
I will never cease to give you my love.
There are many outside who try to intrude and disrupt.
Will you cast your magic dust on them?
Will they breathe it into their lungs?
Will you show them your mercy if they give you their hearts?
My mission won't fail.
I will not look astray.
You won't sell out to me.
You've got me hooked to your line.
Keep pulling me toward you and I won't turn away or blink.
My love for you is like a prison.
My devotion is sealed away so tight.
