

Summertime

"Drawer"

It's just a drawer away
One more floor away
Who's at your door today.

You don't care who lies to you
You've finally found something to do
Kills you if you want it to
Isn't it cool.

Don't have to cry to me
About what you try to be
So am I in need.

You don't care who lies to you
You've finally found something to do
Don't it make your black eyes blue
Kills you if you want it to.

It's just a drawer away
It's just a drawer away
Away, away, away

You don't care who lies to you
You've finally found something to do
Don't it make your black eyes blue
Don't it make, don't it make, don't it make
Don't it make your black eyes blue
Kills you if you want it to
Isn't it cool.
