I don't don't wanna waste your time
Make you hang around thinking you've done wrong
You can only wait for me so long
But I aint coming over proving nothing
Cause I know it's always something
And how you value Your time alone
So I'm out of here
'Cause I know I'm nowhere near
What you want, What you want, What your lookin for
I don't wanna make you smile
Only to see it turn all around
When you decide I've just let you down
I aint makin up my mind just yet
How easy I forget
Just how you add to my confusion
So I'm out of here
Cause I know I'm nowhere near
What you want, What you want, What your lookin for.
If I'm breakin your heart
You'll always know where mine got it's start
I'ts better like this anyway
If your world is fallen apart
Maybe youl find me in the dark
Searching for the right thing to say
I don't wanna waste your time
Make you hang around thinking you've done wrong
You can only wait for me so long
So Im out of here
Cuase I know Im nowhere near
What you want, What you want, What your looking for,
What you want, What you want, What your looking for,
What you want, What you want, What your looking for
