Its out of your control
it's not about you now
You will not believe it
So I will be the guy
You will never buy
As you spite the air to breathe it

You just can't decide
If you want me dead or alive . . .

Cause you can't get what you want from me
I wouldn't join your little league
I would not belong
And Im sure I'll hear it all again
Maybe from some old best friend
How you will not be wrong

You just can't decide
If you want me dead or alive
Yo u just can't decide . . .

And I will gladly be
The fool you could never play

You just can't decide
If you want me dead or alive

Is everything how it should be
Are you happy for your enemy
And all that's left and gone
With your blessing
