I watched you crawl back to your addiction it's so controlling that it makes you sick you've got no one to blame but yourself for all the pain that you inflict oh, you've gotta turn from what you've done to find what you've been hiding from you can't hide from your creator you can't run from your maker you'll meet him sooner or later
you can't hide from your creator how long will you keep chasing tomorrow the false illusion that you'll be ok your not to far away from knowing the choice is yours don't be afraid oh, you've gotta turn from what you've done
you can't hide from your creator
