back in the day I used to misbehave ride around town rockin lemon parade livin it up seizin the day runnin like the devil till I heard the choir say come on, come home
my life is never gonna be the same

don't you know that love, love, love's gotta hold on me
don't you know that love, love, love's gotta hold on me
and now I live my life a little differently since love found me

no turning back, my life is like an eight track I can't rewind so I'm making up for lost time spreadin love, everywhere I go just like the preacher man on my radio
come on, come home

and now I live my life a little differently

what I really wanna tell ya today is that I'm glad it ended up this way I had debt that I could never repay you know loves gotta hold of me

and now I live my life a little differently
