your words are more than writing on a page they're in my mind, they haunt me everyday your tongue is sharper than a blade leave me alone, stop throwing stones oh, don't ya know
like a razor you cut me
deeper than you know
the words you use are poison
they kill me one by one slowly inflicting wounds that never heal
you cut me
do you, do you even care to think about the pain I have to bear just stop, walk a mile in my shoes how does it feel to be abused
oh, don't ya know
yeah,
and after all the things you said to me I pray that you will someday see
