Today has just begun, another
Cycle to be spun, no further
I seem to freeze in time, unbending
Seem to be stuck in rhyme, unending
The way to go unclear, uncertain
No way to tell from here, disturbing
I seem to freeze in time, unbending
Seem to be stuck in rhyme, unending
Facing my unchanging time
Facing my unchanging mind
Unchanging memory
An image unrevised
And everywhere I look
A change is still denied
(I seem to freeze in time, unbending
Seem to be stuck in rhyme, unending) [2x]
