i won't forget our past i won't forget

i won't forget the efforts made i won't forget all that we felt together in all those days the scene is fucking dead and maybe it's better we're alone in our own as it's always been before yeah ten years amazing times no regrets!

i put my freedom i put my life i put my face and my sights and day by day the efforts made made us strong as a rock we've been a family for years that is what i say today we lost some we won some but success is just a joke we dreamt the sky and we're keeping on our biggest love

together in all those days the scene is dead and maybe it's better we're alone in our own but we felt it's better this way as we've always done it by our own strength with a will no others have had as we've always fought against what they said with bruised eyes but our hands up high day by day the efforts made made us strong as a rock to move past the worst days we're just a band standing our ground against those bastards who try to put us down as we've always done it by our own strength

with a light leading us to be a better band with your light we will still be a better band

with your love i know we'll be a stronger team with your help we will become better men thanks to all of you who took care of us as a band

with your light leading us to be a better band with your love i know we'll we'll a stronger team and we did it thanks to your own strength with a love no others have had
