

Sun Of Sadness "No Looking Back"

Visit "No Looking Back" on MotoLyrics.com

No looking back to the live I once had
It's passing by my eyes
None hears my lonely cries

Through the dark and gloomy night
The razor of my knife shines bright
It's cutting up my lonely life
Open the gate of a world into I dive

With the floating blood of mine
I am dying but I fell so fine
I fell the pleasure in my mind
About the secrets I will find

I pray for god and higher being
But death and blood is all I am seeing
With this knowledge I can't feel free
It takes me to the edge of sanity

I hate this world, my live is sad
I hate this world, I can't forget
I hate this world, where the sun won't shine

I pray for god and higher being
But death and blood is all I am seeing
With this knowledge I can't feel free
It takes me to the edge of sanity
