Decemberists "Isn't it a Lovely Night?"

Isn't a lovely night? And so alive With fireflies Providing us their holy light

And here we made a bed of boughs And thistle down That we had found To lay upon the dewy ground

And isn't it a lovely way We got in from our play Isn't it babe? A sweet little baby

And wasn't it a lovely breeze

That swept the leaves Of arbor eaves And bent a brush o'er blushing knees

And here we died our little deaths And we were left to catch our breath So swiftly lifting from our chests

And isn't a lovely way We got in from our play Isn't it babe? A sweet little baby
