few true cares have I
as the world turns round I was blind but
now I'm still blind
too few cares have I
as the world turns sour I was blind but
now I'm still blind
I liked you for 24 hours
in your house
& when the time has come to live again
I shall & I liked you for 24 hours

in your house
& now the time has come to live again
I shall
I liked you but that was before why me?
I never knew then & I don't know now
o the things you do
all come back to you that's why I hung back but I'll say what I like now
