"I Kicked The Boy"

Visit "I Kicked The Boy" on MotoLyrics.com when the weather's fine, when it's sunny outside think about the time I kicked a boy 'til he cried oh, I could've been wrong, but I don't think I was he's such a child when I am alone, I remember so well how merrily I tripped a boy so he fell

he's totally wild and I've been wondering lately just who's gonna save me now I have a cold, and no story to tell I'd marry you but I'm so unwell and I could've been wrong well I don't think I was

he's totally wild

and I've been wondering lately just who's gonna save me yes you should've been wise oh hysterical child where'd you learn to do that
