My baby's gone and I'm alone
Left me by myself on my own
So with tears in my eyes
Forgetting my pride
I can't stop this pain
So I'll run and I'll hide...

Runaway, runaway
Gone away, gone away

I'll Pretend to forget about all
Though I know it's a mistake
But I'll be there at your fall
Cause love must have it's way
Then my tears will be dry
And this loving inside
Will make me feel
Like I should run and hide...

Runaway, runaway
Gone away, gone away

Yes I will be there
Cause our love will mend
But please don't ever...
Hurt me again

Runaway, runaway
Gone away, gone away, oh
