Could someone please try to stop this fucking earth
from shaking.
Is there someone who would tie up my eyes so I
couldn't see a thing.
Sometimes it disappears and suddenly it's back here
again.
Is this my truth or am I dreaming cause the sky keeps falling down.
I've still got something left to be here for.
The demons in my head they scream for more.
Something's wrong I have to move on.
Sea's too deep for finding my own place.
Could someone please give a hand and pull me out
from this hole.
Tired of being quiet, must share this all with you. I'm on my knees.
Don't bury me too soon, I think I still have something to say.
This is my truth I am not dreaming though the sky
comes falling down.
I've still got something left to be here for.
The demons in my head they scream for more.
Something's wrong I have to move on.
Sea's too deep for finding my own place.
Could someone please try to stop this fucking earth
from shaking.
Is there someone who would tie up my eyes so I
couldn't see a thing.
Sometimes it disappears and suddenly it's back here
again.
Is this my truth or am I dreaming cause the sky keeps falling and they scream for more
