We see as one, do as one and speak as one
We walk as one, run as one and dance as one
We work as one, play as one and lie as one
We live as one, die as one and love as one
Sometimes I feel I have to lift my head and scream
I'm only chasing my dreams
It may not be what it seems
We sing as one, cry as one and laugh as one
We come as one, go as one and stay as one
We give as one, take as one, a chance as one
Make war as one, peace as one and love as one
Sometimes I feel I have to lift my head and scream
I'm only chasing my dreams
It may not be what it seems
Can you hear the sun scream
I'm only chasing my dreams
Sometimes I feel I have to lift my head
Sometimes I feel I have to lift my head
(I'm only chasing my dreams)
Sometimes I feel I have to lift my head and scream
(It may not be what it seems)
Sometimes I feel I have to lift my head
(I'm only chasing my dreams)
Sometimes I feel I have to lose my head
(It may not be what it seems)
Sometimes I feel I have to lift my head
(Can you hear the sun scream)
Sometimes I feel I have to lose my head
I'm only chasing my dreams
Sometimes I feel I have to
Sometimes I feel
