Walking down the unlit hallway of life, there's hope I know
There's an angel she follows me
Follows me close, she touches my shoulder
Sings words so clear they bring comfort to my ear
She guided me home

Breathe my love
Wake my love
Hold me my love

Looking out into the skyline today
How will we ever stay
Composed her smile, her soul
Rising for miles, soul's rising for miles
Looking out into this morning she left
How will we ever rest
Staring at the ground we spread her around
They spread her around

Breathe my love
Wake my love
Hold me my love

Coming in the haunted city at last
My heart beat fast
Down Kearny, down Pine, down Stockton, down Hyde
She followed me home
And I found you there asleep in my chair
I found you there
And I feel you near like you are still here
I feel you near

Breathe my love
Wake my love
Hold me my love

Breathe my love
Wake my love
Hold me my love
