Female:

Open the door
You'll see the light
Beyond the stars
Life after light
Behind each breath
Hides an exhale
Born with the sun
Die with a fall
Open your eyes
You'll see the shrouds
As waters fall
Up to the clouds
Roam the hard road
Climb to the peak
Fly with the light
And fall down weak

Male:

Life is a flashlights
between two moments
Handful of pale sand
amongst the dunes
Life is chaos inside the order
Life is a false note amongst the tunes
