[Chorus:]

So there you go again you say you want your freedom
Well who am I to keep you down? (I can't hold you down [x2])

It's only right that you should play the way you're feelin
But listen carefully to the sound of the loneliness
And a heartbeat drives you mad

[Verse 1: Mykah9]

Heartbreaker, Love maker, I smoke weed by the acre,
LA Laker

I get a hoe and I'll break her

That's how it goes down, might not take my time with it

Try ta fake her, dig in the crater, dig in the fader

Treat every illustrious Goddess the way that she needs to be treated, Mykah

Modest

I will when I'm honest, daybreak they promise

They start goin on & on with this drama

I don't know what's up witchu ma'

I'm breakin' up witchu ma'

When I first met you I was all struck, constrictin'

Just wanted to start kickin

All my pain, cut in head instead

Mykah now spendin' all his bread

But girl when you in the bed & when you in my bed

Girl I love you instead

But now that it's over I don't think about you no more

I'm back just makin my bread

Watchin the dough rise

But I'm still thinkin 'bout those thighs

In my enterprise you wanna cling on

But when I really realize I'm better off when you're gone

[Hook:]

So there you go again you say you want your freedom

Well who am I to keep you down? (I can't hold you down [x2])

It's only right that you should play the way you're feelin

But listen carefully to the sound of the loneliness
An' a heartbeat drives you mad
And it seems like you're remem'ring what you had

[Verse 2: Sunspot Jonz]

Ya, Sunspot used to have dem dreams
Me comin home get you out them jeans
I'm a sex fiend, nympho
Once did it blindfold
Bitch you had me blind, I was tied up til nightfall
She didn't know that I knew her name
She didn't know about my ex ex-flames
Can't be a pimp forever, whateva is whateva
Does love last forever?
Saw a fortune teller, she told me you were crazy
Old news, lady
The girls a real psycho, but the only one for me
My number one homey, number one enemy
Askin me who is that on the caller I'd Please Mykah has to grow
We can rock it once more
I like good girls who like to dress like hoez...
We gon do it once more.

[Hook:]

So there you go again you say you want your freedom
Well who am I to keep you down? (I can't hold you down [x2])
It's only right that you should play the way you're feelin
But listen carefully to the sound of the loneliness
An' a heartbeat drives you mad
And it seems like you're remem'ring what you had
