Visit "To A Friend" on MotoLyrics.com

a time ago my friend you are gone there's no chance to turn back time my unspoken words you've never heard take your last ride and wait for me I can see you there from far away and I'm waiting to speak the unspoken words you're inside - never forget you so much time - we've spend my lost soul - no pain helping hands - protecting you there are many words I've never said and that's the reason I feel so sad I'm so sorry for things I did and I hope that you will forgive don't worry about what happened before I am here for you and will forgive when my time arrives I will follow you into another world a place without pain and sorrow
