Trapped in this coffin, please take me away.
I look to the stars as I plan my escape.
So comfortable right here
Without a sign, without a sign

Take us to Nebulon (x4)

Born of this Earth, but I want to go home.
None of them like me, I am so alone.
So comfortable right here
Without a sign, without a sign

Take us to Nebulon (x8)

Comfortable right here
Without a sign, without a sign

Freedom, salvation, both hover above us.
Time to return, Nebulon waits in this trust
So comfortable right here
Without a sign, without a sign

Take us to Nebulon (x8)
