Someone's heart is feather
Free fading falling down on me
The strangers thoughts
So real so cold
That steals the mind but not the soul
The thousand nights when silence crys
Starlight friends with moolights eyes
Then sometimes when I try to dream
I think of you Do you think of me
I can feel the change In you
But what am I supposed to do
It's not for me and not for time
To know just what you have in mind
If this is love Then let it be
What's wrong for you is right for me
It's funny how love drifts away
When I thought your heart
Was here to stay
You got the moonlight and starlight
To make my dreams come true tonight
You got the moonlight and starlight
To make my dreams come true tonight
And if you're feeling as I do
What you wish I wish for you
But sometimes When I stop to dream
I think of you do you think of me
You got the moonlight and starlight
To make my dreams come true tonight
You got the moonlight and starlight
To make my dreams come true tonight
If this is love Then let it be
What's wrong for you
Is right for me
It's funny how love drifts away
When I thought your heart
Was here to stay
You have had the best of me
I gave it all so endlessly
And now I'm tumbling to the ground
You pick me up and you spin me around
The fires heart is burning bright

Lets hope it burns for me tonight
This loving you has taken
Fall when you know
Your love's no love at all
You got the moonlight and starlight
To make my dreams come true tonight
You got the moonlight and starlight
To make my dreams come true tonight
And if
