I never knew just what to do
When it came to life and all its promises
I always heard every word that came along the way
Now I know that what I sew will always be
The way things really just grow
Forever now please show me how
To fight these feelings they're still reeling

[Chorus:]

No longer will I have to rewind the past
Cause I've come to grips with it
No longer will I carry this weighted mask
Now I face the day with no shame
I've always tried to live the life
But now I'm looking back and it doesn't seem right
How I lived to never give
And always take what wasn't mine
Indiscreet could never keep
A glimmer in my soul of something more
No longer I will sit and die for something
I don't even really care for

[Chorus]

Yeah

No longer...

[Chorus]

No longer
No longer

Now I face the day with no shame
