If yesterday was here I,
I could turn and face all my fears
When tomorrow calls my name I,
I won't be afraid

Change my name, I'm asking you
To take my fame, and wash it away
I'm on my knees, waiting for you
To take my vanity, my vanity

As the show goes on, oh
The mirror lies, but you, you see through me
And though I try to make believe,
I cannot hide, my identity

Change my name, I'm asking you
To take my fame, and wash it away
I'm on my knees, waiting for you
To take my vanity, my vanity

Change my name, I'm asking you
To take my fame, and wash it away
I'm on my knees, waiting for you
To take my vanity, my vanity
