Conversation, such a conversation piece.
You should become,
A part of what they wanna see.
Don't they get it?
That words are such a fetish,
And they take new gossip,
And turn it to a tragedy.

Conversation, such a conversation piece.
All the envies,
Everything they wanna be.
You haven't slept in days,
And you're not ready to.
Forget about them,
Life is not a tragedy.

You've got things on your mind.
And you'd like to talk for awhile.
I'd like to help you figure this out.

So, you're in despair.
And you're in so deep,
That you can't get out.

So, you're in despair.
And you're in so deep,
That you can't get out.

Conversation, such a conversation piece.
You should become,
A part of what they wanna see.
Don't they get it?
That words are such a fetish,
And they take good gossip,
And turn it to a tragedy.

You've got things on you're mind.
And you'd like to talk for awhile.
I'd like to help you figure this out.

So, you're in despair.
And you're in so deep,

That you can't get out.

So, you're in despair.
And you're in so deep,
That you can't get out.

'Fraid I won't be there.
Afraid that you'll drown in this world of doubt.

So, you're in despair.
And you're in so deep,
That you can't get out.
'Fraid I won't be there.

Just think of where you speak,
And I can save you know.
Just think of where you see,
And I can save you know.

So, you're in despair.
And you're in so deep,
That you can't get out.

'Fraid I won't be there.
Afraid that you'll drown in this world of doubt.

Just think of where you speak,
If I can save you now.
Just think of where you see,
And I can help you down.

All of the world's sins,
That we can talk about.

Just think of where you speak,
If I can save you now.
