When you came back to this town
You brought this weather with you
A silver sun that wont go down

They grabbed you by the belt
Pulled you to the ground
Smothered you with kisses
I thought I know what he misses
About this crowd

And I ask you
Does your hometown care

Throw us in the back
Leave the driver to his wheel
One more sick display
I think I can swallow pill

Every second guess
Every street cred test
You think you must be passing
With your ability at best
Yes

And I ask you
Does your hometown care
