Shawty I don't care who you are,
Surely I would tear you apart.
Call it what you want, call me heartless,
Why for you to leave still seems the hardest?
Is it 'cause my ways, is it 'cause the swag,
Is it 'cause the days you see what you couldn't have.
Is it 'cause my face, or is it 'cause the fact,
I'd be the best thing that you ever would've had.
Chasin' me to bag but I guess you should've tagged,
But you played hide and seek and now you hidin' in the past.
I'm another beast in the game,
So they leave me in the cage.
Ha! Lock it up tight,
Throw away the key,
But give a blind chick back her site,
And I be the first thing she'd wanna see.
Talk about this, talk about that,
Hurtin' you while the knives massagin my back.
Shawty so lucky she talkin' me, while I'm gassin' her up, && I ain't showin' her love, cause me passin' by should be enough.
I got the blind chick sayin' he has my heart,
And the deaf one screamin' he said he loved me.
Just like every chick you lyin' from the start,
But I can quickly move along within one beat.
Cause in true story I'm that one cat you'll never meet,
Fantasize and dream bout the right one you've ever seen.
Lucky you next to me, shawties will steal ya seat,
On every corner sweatin' me cause I'm real unique.
And I can be cocky: can back it up with experience,
It's evidence, Ain't no if I am what you wished you get.
My confidence at the top floor, and if the buildin' goin'
down,
It's the last thing that hits the ground.
I know you been tryna front,
but I've made you better than you ever been now.
Your girlfriends tellin' you how,
I got someone else new and you just lost out.
Your concious tellin' you wow,
No way, it's only been a while.

She's so lost,
Meanwhile I'm so found.
Her fingers crossed,
So silent to hear her heart pound.
That's not her heart poundin',
That's me tryna leave cause she trapped me in her heart.
It was weird how it sounded,
Imagine how it looked this had end from the start.
Picture me with no girl on the side,
Then the world will collide.
And the moon aint shinin' tonight,
Cause soon as I told her goodbye.
She thought there was gonna be a hello...
But hell no,
Cause all these girls do is multiply,
And I'm gon' keep addin' 'em and won't close my mind.
Always havin' to divide my love life,
Sharin' as long as it's enough right?
You not the only one I choose to dead,
Cause in this love game, I never lose a step.
But you got to left feet and never came correct,
The next chick havin' what you can't get.
But I'm me and no sorries,
And you'll always drown in what ifs and problies.
I'm Dee Breezy, the one who took your heart and hurt it,
But best believe me, the next chick I got sayin' that I'm PERFECT. I'm PERFECT. PERFECT
