As soon as I got home
Reached for the phone(Foam)
Drank my sleep from a can
Playing tracks 6 and 7, again and again
I had a crush
Nothing works out
Well, I had faith
Could not have known; don't even say it.
Meet me again, maybe one mile high
Meet me again, and I won't flake this time
Meet mee again, Maybe a year from now
Meet me again, I think we both remember how
There was no architect designed this veiw
He could not have known about you
Mouse homes, catacombs
Detroit has a skyline, too
Detroit has a skyline, too
I had a crush
Nothing works out
Well, I had faith
Could not have known; don't even say it
