As I walk into a night I don't feel my feet touch the ground,
And I want to carry on,
But I can't see anyone,
And take the time,

There may be troubles,
In your mind,
May'be tomorrow,
It could be fine,

I feel like going home,
But I don't know if our map will ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?
And I feel there's something wrong,

But I know it's just the time it takes to climb,

There may be troubles,
In your mind,
May'be tomorrow,
It could be fine,
There may be troubles,
In your mind,
May'be tomorrow,
It could be fine
