It's late in the day
I'm thinking of you
Things that you say
So long
So long for me

It's late in the day
I'm talking to you
Hear what I say
So long
So long for me

All the time I thought of you
In an ordinary way
You slip back down the heart away
An' all I really have to say
Is people pass along the way
Thoughts of you and me again

I lay on my bed
Searching my mind
Writing my love
So long
So long for me

I sleep on the road
Dreaming of sound
Coming my way
So long
So long for me

All the time I thought of you
In an ordinary way
Check back down the heart away
An' all I really have to say
Is people pass along the way
Thoughts of you and me again

All the time I thought of you
In an ordinary way
You slip back down the heart away
All I really have to say

Is people pass along the way
I close my eyes and turn away

An' all the time I think of you
In an ordinary day
Check back down the heart away
All I really have to say
Is people pass along the way
Thoughts of you and me again
