Our love has broken in two
But please let us be together
Come on we can work it out
And since you are the only one alive Then we have to be together
Though we don't communicate

But you can't help me

Cause I've been searching and searching for you
But I know that it's just a mess
And i've been trying
and trying all day
To figure out the way

But my heart has broken in two
and since you are the only one alivethen we have to be together
though we don't communicate

but you can't have me

but I know that it's just a mess
and trying all day
to figure out the way
