"The Knife Rises"

A blunt knife, kept out of sight, should be mandatory.
To end a life (that's) a waste of time, a murder in the making Misunderstood, opposed to most, stock piling ammunition
Unplugged, media, and mass confusion,
That should keep us uninvolved
I'm asking, what you are asking, the pressure on you all
No balls, with out a soul, makes for no one, You're a nobody; don't act like a somebody, like everybody.
A momma's boy, a fool's world,
No contribution, to a world ruled by ignorance
No drive
It's calling, it's falling, it's falling, it's failing on top of me
You broke your soul again.
You murdered your only friend., a speck in the Atmosphere, killed and you'll never leave here
A Knife Rises up from hell Come to my grave, and be saved, for I am the lord of the dead
Menstruated blood gives me life, awakened by occult abuse
