I got something to do, I hope you're coming too Don't tell your mom and dad, we're gonna meet some dudes
They think they're just too cool, that's why I hate'em so
Watch your head and step, get ready for a fight

I wanna mess 'em up, before they take us down
We are not alone, minority will rise
Try hard to be a punker, can't stand for going further Stealing my style in the name of attention!

Fucking hero, get lost of me
Fucking hero, not close to me

You make me sick and I never hope your help
You better live in hell than you're living in pretend
You make me sick and I never hope your help
And I would not let you live again

A hero, zero, what else a fucking moron
A hero, zero, what else a fucking cow
A hero, zero, what else a fucking...
A hero, zero, you must get a fucking go!
