when the sky is dark and my passion seems to strong guess the queen has left this thorned heart alone tomorrow's broken dream is harder than i thought i fought the devil, find emptiness in me so that's the story i've made and all the consequences it claims oh no my lady, this song made of gold when the flowers bloom and the thorns stick in my veins push my blood into the edge of insanity..... evrything is a blur, a picture of your kiss, tasted so sweet and poison, here i come.....

inject myself with angels wings,
lay me down here in a burning ring oh no my lady, the memory remains.....

and all the consequences it claims

cos i fought the war inside my pain explains the true meaning of life
inject myself with angels wings,
