

Superman Is Dead "Night Of The Lonely"

The moon is high, the fire burns...
Is there heaven waits for me
Ain't got no friends, just walk alone
This lonely road will never ends...

Time's slow, this pain grow so fast
Keep running low to survive
Devil roll the dice, you know my time is up
Angel by my side, she whisper this ain't right

The tide is high, dark water blues
Drowned in this unforgiven sins...
Tons of regrets and million tears
Until the day I disappear...
Lonely days and lonely nights
Give me something to believe
Let my faith gracefully arise
And this hope for better day...
