Do you feel a connection to people in the service?
No not at all, not at all
Do you feel a connection to people in the office?
No not at all, not at all
Do you feel a connection to people making laws?
No not at all, not at all
Do you feel a connection to people fighting for a cause?
No not at all, not at all
Do you feel a connection to people on the street?
From time to time, time to time
Do you feel a connection to everyone you meet?
Yes and no, yes and no
Do you feel a connection to people at the show?
From time to time, time to time
Do you feel a connection to everyone you know?
Yes and no, yes and no

But everybody knows to step to the rhythm
Like an instinct, follow the beat in your heart
And everybody lives in this very instant
Holding the past and the future apart
And everybody hears the music and sings along
Always in tempo, always in tune
Everybody flails around, everybody in the world
Under clouds and the sun and the moon

Do you feel a connection to people on the sign?
No not at all, not at all
Do you feel a connection to people getting in line?
No not at all, not at all
Do you feel a connection to people on the screen?
No not at all, not at all
Do you feel a connection to under 18?
No not at all, not at all
Do you feel a connection to people on the scene?
From time to time, time to time
Do you feel a connection to people in your dreams?
Yes and no, yes and no
Do you feel a connection even if you try?
From time to time, time to time

Do you feel a connection to everyone alive?
Yes and no, yes and no

But everybody knows to step to the rhythm
Like an instinct, follow the beat in your heart
And everybody lives in this very instant
Holding the past and the future apart
And everybody hears the music and sings along
Always in tempo, always in tune
Everybody flails around, everybody in the world
Under clouds and the sun and the moon

But everybody knows to step to the rhythm
Like an instinct, follow the beat in your heart
And everybody lives in this very instant
Holding the past and the future apart
And everybody hears the music and sings along
Always in tempo, always in tune
Everybody flails around, everybody in the world
Under clouds and the sun and the moon

No not at all, no not at all
From time to time, from time to time
Yes and no, yes and no
Do you feel disconnected?

No not at all, no not at all
From time to time, from time to time
Yes and no, yes and no
Do you feel disconnected?

No not at all, no not at all
From time to time, from time to time
Yes and no, yes and no
Do you feel disconnected?

No not at all, no not at all
From time to time, from time to time
Yes and no, yes and no
Do you feel disconnected?

No not at all, no not at all
From time to time, from time to time
Yes and no, yes and no
Do you feel disconnected?

No not at all, no not at all
From time to time, from time to time
Yes and no, yes and no
Do you feel disconnected?
