Lord I'm needing to move on with my life
People tell me it gets better with time

Well it looks like I've come to that line
Steppin over to get what's mine
Gotta help me feel something that's real to me

I just a stranger looking for redemption
Just a lost soul in need of direction

Well it looks like I've come to that line
Steppin over to get what's mine
Gotta help me feel something that's real to me

I'm crossing that line gonna find something that's real Aint wasting no more time gotta find something that's real
Find something that's real

Aint wasting no more time gotta find something that's
Find something that's real

Well it looks like I've come to that line
Steppin over to get what's mine
Gotta help me feel something that's real to me

I'm crossing that line gonna find something that's real
Ain't wasting no more time gotta find something that's

Find something find something that's real to me
