(Clifton Davis)

When the morning comes with all its surprise
Though the stormy clouds may cover the sky
All I have to do is look in your eyes
And baby, here comes the sunrise

No, got no worries, I ain't got a care
Though every day tries to give me my share
Just as long as I know you're still there
Oh baby, here comes the sunrise
(Here comes the sunrise)

Lost and alone
I couldn't see it before
Then your love came my way
Turn my night into day
Now I know what it has in store
Everyday I'm gonna love you more

[interlude]

Oh, and after sunshine's upon a new day
I see your lovelight shine come what may
And I know tomorrow's got to be the same way
Oh baby, here comes the sunrise
(Here comes the sunrise)
Oh, oh, oh, here comes the sunrise
(Hey, hey, hey)

Here it comes (Here comes)
I got somebody (Here comes)
Here it comes (Here comes)
Heyyyyy, hey, ooooooooooooooooooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, oooooooooh, ooh
Hey! (here comes)
Here comes the sunrise...
