That's how much (that's how much)
You made me love you
That's how much you made me love you
(Love you, love you)
Here's how much I love you
Been 'bout to meet you at six
I'm ready by five (by five)
I changed into a different dress
Three or four times (four times)
I just get off the phone
And as I leave the house at five
I'm calling you again to say
I love you one more time
That's how much (that's how much)
You made me love you
That's how much (that's how much)
You made me love you
That's how much (that's how much)
You made me love you (love you, love you)
I couldn't sleep a wink
After you brought me home (me home)
I know I'm not a poet,
But I wrote you a poem (a poem)
I felt kinda guilty
Though you said you didn't mind
Been calling you at 4 a.m.
To read you every line
[Chorus]
Da da (da da da), ahh ahh
Da da (da da da), ahh ahh
Ahh ahh ah ah ahhh, ahhh
You got my mind so humble
When they all lost my head (my head)
Been stopped on a green light
And drove off on a red (the red)
I've seen girls in movies
Acted like I do
It couldn't seem so real
Until I fell in love with you
[Repeat chorus]
You know I love you

Though I can't live without you
I should have to think and write
At home all about you
That's how much you made me love you
