You've got to pay the price
Love don't come so easy
You've got to make every sacrifice
You've got to pay the price
(You've got to pay the price)

'Cause true love and devotion
Will get something hard to find
You may spending your life on trying
But that's when you finally found
Someone to build your life around
When it's worth it to find a love that's true
You'll must depend that you'll be through

But you've got to pay the price
Love don't come so easy
You've got to make every sacrifice
You've got to pay the price
(You've got to pay the price)

That means heartaches by the number
Going from one boy to another
Looking and finally you discover
But true love means confusion
It just might be an illusion
There are days when you're feeling blue
But lady luck smile on a heart that's true

You've got to pay the price
You've got to pay the price

Ooh, ooh
You've got to pay the price

You've got to pay the price
Love don't come so easy
You've got to make every sacrifice
You've got to pay the price
(You've got to pay the price)

While you're looking for affection

Just beware, better pay some dues
So here's some advice you can use
Keep your eye in one direction
Till you'll make the right connection
Somehow, some way but then
True love found a way for you again

You've got to pay the price
Love don't come so easy
You've got to make every sacrifice
You've got to pay the price
(You've got to pay the price)
Ooohn ooh....
