Somewhere a dream away
There is a better place, a brighter day
Somewhere that's safe, somewhere that's free
Where we can be together

So just close your eyes and let me take you there
To somewhere only dreamers ever go
It won't be just a fantasy (Oh no)
If you believe with me
The two of us all alone
In a world of our own

A world of our own
Where we know we belong
A world of our own
Where love is sure and strong can never die
And lovers never say goodbye

Someday a light will shine
And there will come a time
That's yours and mine
A time so sweet
So clear and true
We'll see right to forever

So just close your eyes and let me take you there
To somewhere only dreamers ever go
It won't be just a fantasy (oh no)
If you believe with me
The two of us all alone
In a world of our own

A world of our own
Where we know we belong
A world of our own (A world of our own)
Where love is sure and strong can never die
And lovers never say goodbye

So wrap your arms around me
And we'll leave it all behind
We'll go where no one else will ever find us

So just close your eyes and let me take you there
(Instrument Break)
It won't be just a fantasy (Oh no)
If you believe with me
We can make it come true (True if you'll be there)
Just by loving each other (Loving each other)
The two of us all alone in a world of our own

A world of our own
Where we know we belong
A world of our own (A world of our own)
Where love is sure and strong can never die
And you and I won't ever say...goodbye
