Break free from your chains
This beast will be unleashed For all to see
New sounds of terror run through these streets

Examine the scene
Where crime took hold Pray for one and all and let it unfold

Such a new way of feeling
These days of grief and pain
How far have I come only to be right in front of you
This is not the end but only the beginning if only we can prove to you.. to prove to you

You flee to find yourself but you plea for help These fence links hold grudge and faith, call this what you will

In our struggle for purity, broken bonds can be felt across the sea.
Without your love...
